Media Release

May 16, 2018

On May 14, 2018 at approximately 10:30pm, Thurmont Police responded to an apartment in the 1st Block of East Main St. for a domestic assault. The responding officer found a female victim who reported her husband, who had already left the scene, had choked her during an argument. The victim showed signs of injuries related to strangulation and was transported to FMH for treatment. A medical examination of the victim showed bruising under the chin and petechial on the roof of her mouth. The suspect was identified as: Eddie Wayne Moore, age 40, of Thurmont. Mr. Moore was located in Thurmont on May 15, 2018 at approximately 9:00pm and taken into custody. Moore was charged with: First Degree Assault, Second Degree Assault. After Moore's Initial Hearing with the District Court Commissioner, he has been held without Bond.
