

The Insider

The mission of the Thurmont Police Commission is to perform as an advisory body to the Thurmont Board of Commissioners on matters concerning the Thurmont Police Department. Input to the Commission shall be received from the public, the police department, the Board of Commissioners, and members of the Police Commission.

Officer of the Year Sergeant Dave Armstrong

Sergeant Dave Armstrong joined the Thurmont Police Department in 2012 after retiring from the Frederick Police Department. Sgt. Armstrong has proven to be an asset to the TPD since the day he began. After serving in Patrol and as a First Line Supervisor, Sgt. Armstrong was promoted to the rank of Sergeant in 2018. Sgt. Armstrong assumed the role of the agency's Training Coordinator after being promoted and then developed a time line for mandatory training. Sgt. Armstrong provides daily supervisory leadership for the other officers and his service to the TPD projects a professional image to the community with efficient and quality police work.

Move Over!

If you see emergency vehicles up ahead – move over
and give them space...

Employee of the Year Code Enforcement Officer Kristi Wood

The Thurmont Police Department's Civilian Employee of the Year award was presented to Code Enforcement Officer Kristi Wood. Wood began part-time with the department in 2014 and became full-time in 2017. Wood has received numerous compliments from coworkers and members of the community for her compassion and work ethic. She was also instrumental in promoting child safety by introducing town mascot "Safety Pup," who visited schools and engaged children even through COVID-19.
