Media Release

March 24, 2015
(Arrests)

On March 21, 2015 at approximately 9:30pm, Thurmont Police Officers responded to a residence on North Carroll Street for a domestic dispute. Upon their arrival, the officers contacted a female and found her to be a victim of assault. The female had abrasions on her face and upper body. The officers identified a male who was involved in the dispute and placed him under arrest. The male identified as: Corey Michael Simon, age 37, of Thurmont, was charged with: Second Degree Assault. Mr. Simon posted a $15,000 Bond and was released.

On March 23, 2015 at approximately 11:23am, a Thurmont Police Officer initiated a traffic stop on a vehicle on Tippin Drive. The officer identified the operator of the vehicle as: Jeremy D. Hewitt. Further investigation revealed that Mr. Hewitt's privilege to drive had been suspended since February 2014. The tags on the truck that Mr. Hewitt was operating, was also suspended for Emissions. Mr. Hewitt was placed under arrest and charged with Driving while Suspended. He was taken to Central Booking and is still being held without bond.
